Mr Marcellus.

Kind Friend

I heard from Mr Titus Hall. the day he was to meet me at the Pioneer's Hall his wife suddenly dropped dead that put a gloom over his intentions. She was in perfect health. I never have heard the particulars I sent you a box today by express it is a stuffed Badger Skin to put in your Menagerie he distroyed a good many turkeys for me. mostly setting hens in the Brush. so I finally captured him and stuffed his hide. I have had it several years seeing that Eagle on exhibition it put me in mind of it. please except the same.

I hope these few lines will find you as well as they leave me.

No more at present

I remain yours
